FOOD SERVICE WORKER DIPLOMA PROGRAM

Program Overview

Food Service Worker prepares the students to work in the dietary departments of hospitals, long-term care facilities, retirement homes, group homes, and other healthcare settings.

The program has been developed with the support and co-operation of health care facilities to prepare individuals for employment in food service in a health care setting. The students will acquire knowledge and skills that will enable them to become a valuable member of the dietary team.

This is a specialized training in the food service industry, and wages are usually higher than in mainstream food service establishments. You will become part of a team as you pursue your passion for preparing nutritious food that will benefit the health of your customers.

Graduates typically pursue these types of jobs:

- Long Term Care homes
- Retirement homes
- Hospitals, Acute care facilities
- Rehab facilities
- Hospice Care facilities
- Food service contractors
- Health care facilities
